argent. Motto—"Festina lente virtute et sanguine." [Mr. Swifte quarters—as will be seen from the above reproduction of his bookplate—"Or, a chevron vair between three bucks in full course proper." This coat is that of the family of Swifte of Allergill, co. Durham, and Rotherham, co. York, from whom descent is claimed and could probably be substantiated. The coat, however, is not officially recorded in Ireland, and the descent and consequent right to the arms is not recorded in the College of Arms in England. For the crest and supporters as used there does not appear to be any authority, as the original crest of Swifte of Allergill and Rotherham is the crest recorded in Ulster's Office as above quoted. The supporters are probably intended for those of the Viscounty of Carlingford, an Irish Peerage held by a member of the Swifte family, but extinct in 1634]. Seats—Swiftsheath, Jenkinstown, co. Kilkenny; Lionsden, Castlerickard, co. Meath. Club—Kildare Street (Dublin).
